Self-Respect

Self-respect cannot be hunted:

It is never for sale,

It cannot be purchased:

It comes to us in quiet moments

In quiet places,

When we suddenly realize that

Knowing the good, we have done it;

Knowing the beautiful, we have served it;

Knowing the truth, we have spoken it.

Sioux Indian Prayer

O' Great Spirit,
Whose voice I hear in the winds,
And whose breath gives life to all the world,
hear me! I am small and weak, I need your strength and wisdom.

Let Me Walk In Beauty, and make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunset.

Make My Hands respect the things you have made and my ears sharp to hear your voice.

Make Me Wise so that I may understand the things you have taught my people.

Let Me Learn the lessons you have hidden in every leaf and rock.

I Seek Strength, not to be greater than my brother, but to fight my greatest enemy - myself.

Make Me Always Ready to come to you with clean hands and straight eyes.

So When Life Fades, as the fading sunset,
my spirit may come to you without shame.

Some Ideas on Scouts' Owns

For an open Troop, or for Troops in camp, I think the Scouts' Own should be open to all denominations, and carried on in such manner as to offend none. There should not be any special form, but it should abound in the right spirit, and should be conducted not from any ecclesiastical point of view, but from that of the boy. Everything likely to make an artificial atmosphere should be avoided. We do not want a kind of imposed Church Parade, but a voluntary uplifting of their hearts by the boys in thanksgiving for the joys of life, and a desire on their part to seek inspiration and strength for greater love and service for others.

A Scouts' Own should have as big an effect on the boys as any service in Church, if in conducting the Scouts' Own we remember that boys are not grown men, and if we go by the pace of the youngest and most uneducated of those present. Boredom is not reverence, nor will it breed religion.

To interest the boys, the Scouts' Own must be a cheery and varied function. Short hymns (three verses are as a rule quite enough-never more than four); understandable prayers; a good address from a man who really understands boys (a homely "talk" rather than an address), which grips the boys, and in which they may laugh or applaud as the spirit moves them, so that they take a real interest in what is said. If a man cannot make his point to keen boys in ten minutes he ought to be shot! If he has not got them keen, it would be better not to hold a Scouts' Own at all.

A New Member

I see you at the meetings,
But you never say, "Hello,"
You're busy all the time you're there
With those you already know.

I sit amongst the people
Yet I'm a lonesome guy,
The "new members" are all strangers too,
And the "old timers" pass me by.

But, darn it, you people asked me in,
And you talked of fellowship;
You could just step across the room,
But you never make the trip.

Why can't you nod and say, "Hello,"
Or stop to shake my hand,
Then go and sit amongst your friends?
Now, that I'd understand.

I'll be at the next meeting,
Perhaps a nice evening to spend;
Do you think you could introduce yourself?
I want to be your friend.

Brand New Day

This is the beginning of a brand new day.
I can waste it or use it for good.
What I do today is important because I am exchanging a day of my life for it.
When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever,
leaving in its place
What I have traded for it.
I want it to be gain, not loss -- good, not evil -- success, not failure -- so that I shall never regret the price I paid for today.

Prayer

God our Father, Bless us as we gather here today.
Help us to understand our promise better.
Teach us to love you more and to love all your people
and to do our very best every day.
Amen

The Best That I Can Be

Lord, as I start upon my chosen way,
In all I do, my thoughts, my work, my play,
Grant as I promise, Courage new for me,
To be the best, the best that I can be.

B.P wrote:

First love and serve God.

Second love and serve your neighbour.

In doing you duty to God always be grateful to him.

Whenever you enjoy a pleasure or a good game,
or succeed in doing a good thing, thank Him for it,
if only with a word or two.

Your Task

"Your task -
To build a better world", God said.
I answered, "How?
The world is such a large, vast place,
So complicated now.
And I so small and useless am,
There's nothing I can do."
In all His wisdom said,
"Just build a better you."

The Rule of Three

Three things to govern: Temper, tongue and conduct.

Three things to cultivate: Courage, affection and gentleness.

Three things to comment: thrift, industry, and promptness.

Three things to give: help to the needy, comfort to the sad,
and appreciation to the worthy.

Salutation to the Dawn

Look to this day

For it is life; the very life of life.

In its brief path lie all the verities and realities of our existence,

The bliss of growth,

The glory of action,

The splendor of beauty.

For yesterday is but a dream

And tomorrow is only a vision,

But today well lived

Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness

And every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Look well therefore to this day.

Wood Campfires

Kneel always when you light a fire!

Kneel reverently,

And grateful be

To God for His unfailing charity.

- John Oxenham

God of the Open Air

God of the open air,
we kneel reverently in this temple not made with hands.
The tall pines lift our thoughts above us to the Source of all this beauty.
The singing of the feather-throated choir
puts a melody in our hearts,
a song of joy and praise and trust.
All the discordant notes of the world are muted;
all the problems of life are forgotten.
We are filled with an inner peace
and know that here we have found Thee.
As we leave this hallowed spot,
may the reality of Thy presence go with us
to give us courage and strength for our daily tasks.

Amen.

-Dorothy Wells Pease

Grace

O God, Thou hast given so much to us, give one thing more - a grateful heart. Amen.

Quote

To be closer to God, be closer to people.
-Kahlil Gibran

It Couldn't Be Done

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
But he, with a chuckle, replied
That maybe it couldn't, but he would be one
Who wouldn't say so till he'd tried.
So he buckled right in with a trace of a grin
On his face; if he worried, he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done - and he did it.

Somebody scoffed, "Oh, you'll never do that,
At least, no one ever has done it;"
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,
And the first thing we knew he'd begun it.
With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,
Without any doubting or quiddit,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done - and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,
There are thousands to prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you - one by one
The dangers that wait to assail you.
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,
Just take off your coat and go to it;
Just start to sing as you tackle the thing
That cannot be done - and you'll do it.

Count That Day Lost

If you sit down at set of sun
And count the acts that you have done,
And, counting find
One self-denying deed, one word
That eased the heart of him who heard;
One glance most kind,
That fell like sunshine where it went-
Then you may count that day well spent.
But if, through all the livelong day,
You've cheered no heart, by yea or nay-
If, through it all
You've nothing done that you can trace
That brought the sunshine to one face-
No act most small
That helped some soul and nothing cost-
Then count that day as worse than lost.

-George Eliot

Three Things Come Not Back

Remember three things come not back;
The arrow sent upon its track-
It will not swerve, it will not stay
Its speed; it files to wound, or slay.
The spoken word so soon forgot
By thee; but it has perished not;
In other hearts 'tis living still
And doing work for good or ill.
And the lost opportunity
That cometh back no more to thee,
In vain thou weapest, in vain dost yearn,
Those three will nevermore return.

Reporting for Duty

When praying, do not give God instructions - report for duty.

Prayer for your Brother Scouts

Let us each now say a silent prayer for our brother on our right....
For our brother on our left..
And now for our brother scouts around the world.

For the Joy of the Year

Our Lord and creator,
We thank You today for the beauty of our world.
For sunshine and flowers,
Storm-cloud and starry nights,
For the first radiance of dawn
And the last glow of sunset.

We thank you for physical joy,
For clear water to swim in,
For the fresh smell of rain on dry ground,
For hills to climb and work to do together.

Make our hearts wide open to these gifts,
And help us to live in thanksgiving to You,
Our Lord and our creator.

Prayer of Thanks Giving

We thank you today
For the adventure of Scouting,
For the unselfishness of parents,
For the patience of teachers
And for the encouragement of friends.

We give thee thanks, O Lord, for our Founder's life of service and for his gift of Scouting to the world. Help us to hold firmly to the Law which he gave us for guidance and so to understand more fully thy will. Inspire us to find a way of life, in which the youth of all nations, may find unity and true brotherhood.

Amen.

Task Too Big

God give me a task too big,
Too hard for human hands.
Then I shall come at length
To lean on Thee;
And leaning, find my strength.

-Wilbur Humphrey Fowler

The Best We Can Be

If you can't be a pine on top of the hill
Be a scrub in the valley-
but be the best little scrub on the side of the hill
Be a bush if you can't be a tree.

If you can't be a bush be a bit of grass
Some highway to happier make.

If you can't be a muskie then just be a bass,
But the liveliest bass in the lake.

We can't all be captains, we've got to have crew,
There's something for all of us here.
There's big work to do and there's lesser work too
And the task we must do is near.

If you can't be a highway, then just be a trail.
If you can't be the sun, be a star.
It isn't by size that you win or fail.
Be the best of whatever you are.

In them that spirit, born of old
May yet transform this sorry world.

And so we say without a doubt,
That in the heart of every Scout
The hope lives on, the dreams survive,
The Scouting spirit is alive!

Success

Success is in the way you walk,
The paths of life each day;
It's in the little things you do
And in the things you say.
Success is not in getting rich
Or rising high to fame;
It's not alone in winning goals
Which all men hope to claim.
It's being faithful to your friends
And to the strangers kind,
It's in the children whom you love
And all they learn from you;
Success depends on character
And everything you do.

God of the Sea

God of the sea, the winds, the tides, we praise thee for the greatness of thy power and the certainty of thy laws. We see careless picnickers throw their litter to be carried far out into the sea by the outgoing tide, but the next morning it lies stranded on the beach where the high tide has left it.

So it is, our Father, in our lives. We throw out a careless word, an unkind thought, and it comes back to us in resentments and friendlessness. A selfish act, a yielding to temptation, or a deed left undone comes back as a haunting memory, another's failure, or a missed opportunity.

Help us, Our Father, to cast only good upon the waters that good may come back with the tide. Amen.

-Dorothy Wells Pease

We thank Thee

We thank Thee
For flowers that bloom about our feet;
For tender grass so fresh and sweet;
For song of bird and hum of bee;
For all things fair we hear and see,
Father in heaven, we thank Thee!

-Ralph Waldo Emerson

Wanderer's Prayer

I know not were the white road runs,
nor what the blue hills are,
But man can have the sun for a friend,
and for his guide a star;
And there's no end of voyaging when once
the voice is heard.
For the river calls and the road calls,
and oh, the call of a bird!

Recycling the Earth

The old log in the woods will never be a great tree again, things never go back, yet lying there, covered with moss, it is creating new life, which in turn will be great and beautiful....

The fish eats the insect, the bird the fish, The mammal the bird, and the insect the mammal, as each, in universal rhythm is creating new life, for there is no life except life which comes from life...

Waters flow where daisies grew, Trees grow where swans once swam

All things upon this earth are developing into new things, from what is here must come what is to be.... There is no other material.

-Gwen Frostic

The Spirit Lives

The Spirit lives, there is no doubt,
Within the heart of every Scout,
The hope lives on, the dreams survive,
The Scouting spirit is alive!

In England, many years ago,
There lived a man who sought to sow
The seeds of brotherhood of man,
And there the spirit first began.

The Scouting spirit spread about
To nations east, west, north and south,
And soon, on every land and shore,
Young men were taught the Scouting Law.

We camped and learned of nature's ways,
We gloried in our youthful days,
We ventured where all others feared,
Because we knew we were prepared.

The world has changed as years went by,
Society's values went awry,
And many ask, "What is the worth of Scouting on this wretched earth?"

But each new Scout who learns our law
Brings with him hope, and much, much more;
Each generation of Scouts gives
The proof that Scouting's spirit lives.

The treasured values of the past
Still guide Scouts of today; they last
In spite of changes that we see
Around us in society.

And still, adventures filled with fun
Await today's Scouts, every one;

Thank you for the world so sweet,
Thank you for food we eat
Thank you for the birds that sing,
Thank you God, for everything.

Be present at our table, Lord,
Be here and everywhere adored,
These morsels blessed grant that we
May feast in Paradise with Thee.

God, friend of all people,
Be a friend to me;
Take my hand and ever keep me
Close to Thee.

For health and friends,
And daily food
We give Thee thanks, O Lord.

We praise Thee, Father, for food for fellowship
Give to us thru' the one, vigour of body
Thru' the other, strength of spirit.

The bread is on our table
Bless those who have no bread
And give us grace in sharing
This bounty round us spread.

Each Day

Each day, a precious pearl, to you is given
That you must string upon the silver thread of life
And once strung, can never be unthreaded but stays,
An undying record of your faith and skill.
Each golden link you then must weld into the chain of hours
That is no stronger than its weakest link.
Into your hands is given all the wealth and power
To make your life just what you will.
God gives to you, free and unstinted, twelve glorious months
Of soothing rain and sunshine golden.
The days for work and play, the nights for peaceful slumber.
All that He has, He gives, with love unspoken.
All that He asks - you keep the faith unbroken.

Live Each Day

Let me live each day as if it were my last.
Let me enjoy each fleeting hour of time.
Let me give of myself to those who need me.
Let me make each passing face to glow and shine.

Let me bring hope to those who haven't any.
Let me be a friend to those who claim they've none.
Let me show the way, to those who've lost it.
Let me share well with those who've fought and won.
Let me be truthful, where truth cannot let down.
Let me lead, where leaders are most wanted.
Let me smile, when others want to frown.

Let me be, as Thou must well have wanted.
Let me always pay my way, my earthly lease.
Let me richly fill the space Thou givest me.
Let me, finally come to Thee, in peace.

Could Your Afford It?

Suppose God charged us for the rain,
Or put a price on a song-bird's strain
Of music-the dawn-mist on the plain.
How much would autumn landscapes cost,
Or a window etched with winter's frost,
And the rainbow's glory so quickly lost?
Suppose that people had to pay
To see the sunset's crimson play
And the magic stars of the Milky Way.
Suppose it was fifty cents a night
To watch a gull in graceful flight.
How much, I wonder, would it be worth
To smell the good, brown, fragrant earth
In spring? The miracle of birth-
How much do you think people would pay
For a baby's laugh at the close of day?
Suppose God charged us for them, I say!
Suppose we paid to look at the hills,
For the rippling mountain rills,
Or the mating song of the whippoorwills,
Or curving breakers of the sea,
For grace, and beauty, and majesty?
And all these things He gives us free!

-Author Unknown

Grace

For food and all Thy gifts of love
We give Thee thanks and praise
Look down O Lord from above
And bless us all our days.

God we thank Thee for this food
For rest and home and all things good
For wind and rain and sun above
But most of all for those we love.

Bless O Lord this food to our use,
And us to Thy service.

We thank Thee Lord for happy hearts
For rain and sunny weather
We thank Thee Lord for this our food
And that we are together.

God is great and God is good
And we thank Him for our food
By His hand we must be fed
Give us, Lord, our daily bread.

Let us bow our heads and say:
We thank You, God, for food this day.
Thank You, God, for things to eat
For fruit and mild, for bread and meat
Thank You, God, for words to say
So we can speak and we can pray.

Closing Ceremony Thoughts

May I grow in character and ability as I grow in size.
May I be honest with myself and others in what I do and say.
May I always honor my parents, my elders and my leaders.
May I develop high moral principles and the courage to live by them.
May I strive for health in body, mind and spirit.
May I always respect the rights of others.
May I set a good example so that others may enjoy and profit from my company.
May I give honest effort to my work.
May I learn things that will help me make life better for every living thing in God's beautiful world.

Today Upon a Bus

Today, upon a bus,
I say a girl with golden hair,
I envied her, she seemed so gay.
When she rose to leave,
I saw her hobble down the aisle.
She had one leg, and used a crutch,
But as she passed, she smiled.

Oh God, forgive me when I whine,
I have two legs,
The world is mine.

I stopped to buy some candy,
The lad who sold it had such charm,
I talked with him, he seemed so glad,
and as I left he said to me,
"I thank you. You have been so kind,
it's nice to talk to folks like you,
you see," he said, "I'm blind."

Oh God, forgive me when I whine,
I have two eyes,
the world is mine.

Later, when walking down the street,
I saw a child with eyes of blue.
He stood and watched the others play,
I stopped a moment, then said,
"Why don't you join the others dear?"
He looked ahead without a word and then I knew he couldn't hear.

Oh God, forgive me when I whine,
I have two ears,
the world is mine.

With feet to take me where I want to go,
with eyes to see the sunset's glow,

with ears to hear what I would know,
Oh God, forgive me when I whine,
I'm blessed indeed.
The world is mine.

You gave me eyes to see and I see,
but yet I see so little.
You gave me ears to hear,
and I listen not enough.
You gave me a mind to think
but so many times I don't.
You gave me hands to reach out to others,
but so many times I don't reach out far enough.
You gave me a heart to be filled with love,
but so many times it doesn't show.
Help me Lord to use to the fullest,
the things You have given me.

A Scout's Prayer for the Cold

Lord, we are camping in the snow today;
We may fear the cold,
But we trust that your Spirit
Will guide and warm us.

Meditation

Our Father, who art in heaven and who art on earth, even journeying with your people, thank you for being faithful and for never abandoning us. When we are in the wilderness, guide us through and out. When we are lost, please find us. When we cry out, please hear us - in the name of the One who said,
"Lo, I am with you always." Amen

Friendship: from India

There is beauty in the earth,
The mountains high, the valleys green,
The rippling brook, the waterfall.
The wild sweet rose so oft unseen;
The song of birds, the smell of spring
Autumn colors bright and gay,
A thousand treasures we can find
If we but look about each day;
Yes, gracious is the bounty
That God to man does send;
Then, as a crowning glory,
God gave to men - a friend.

Prayer from the West Indies

Oh God, who has made the earth so varied and cast the races of man in so many different molds, we who live in these lovely islands of the western sea pray for all your children. Grant that we, with all men everywhere, may enter into the full joyous life of Your Kingdom.

-from 'Scouting' (U.K.)

Lord's Prayer for Beavers

Our Father who art in heaven, and who art very near to us.
Help us to keep thy name holy, and never to use it in wrong ways;
Help us to do what you want us to, as the angels do in heaven;
Give us this day the food we need, and may we help to feed the hungry;
Forgive us when we are naughty as we forgive those who are naughty to us;
Keep us from wanting to do wrong and help us to do right;
For thine is the kingdom and the glory and the power, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Measurements

Beaver Prayer

The air we breathe, the friends we meet,
The walk to use our eyes and feet,
The things around us make us say,
Thank you, God, for each new day!

-from Scouting (U.K.) magazine

Gifts

The best thing to give to your enemy is forgiveness to an opponent, tolerance to a friend, understanding to a child, a good example to your father, deference to your mother, conduct that will make her proud of you to yourself, respect to all men, charity.

-Arthur James Balfour

Clear Morning

My will slowly forces my resting eyes to peer into the land of the awake
The orange light through the tent shatters the work of my will
by slamming my eyelids together.
I try again
Now, I am prepared
The morning is fresh and crisp clear
The sun dawns over the mountains
reaching for the sky
The snow, white, clean
glistens and shines
I walk to meet nature
The reunion lasts.....

-By Venturer Gavin De Lint

Love

Love all God's creation,
both the whole and every grain of sand.
Love every leaf, every ray of light.
Love the animals, love the plants,
love each separate thing.
If you love each thing,
you will perceive the mystery of God in all;
and when once you perceive this,
you will thence-forward grow every day
to a fuller understanding of it,
until you come at last to love the whole world
with a love that will then be all embracing and universal.

Be At Peace

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore, be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be and, whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world...

-from an inscription in St. Paul's Church, Baltimore

International Youth Year Prayer

May men, with the help of God, build up throughout 1985, united communities of participation, development and peace.

Think Truly

Think truly, and thy thoughts shall the world's family feed;
Speak truly, and each word of thine shall be a fruitful seed;
Live truly, and thy life shall be a great and noble creed.

Some Thoughts

- If you can't see the bright side, polish up the dark one and look at that.
-Colin McKay
 - Remember that it takes both sunshine and rain to make a rainbow.
 - The Lord asks of you only this; to act justly, to love tenderly, and to walk humbly with your God.

A Prayer for a better future

God of the universe, help us to see the hope of a better future for all your people. Help us to rise above our own likes and dislikes when there are more important things to consider, and to play our part in achieving some great good for our country and for the world. Amen.

Gaelic Prayer

Be Thou a bright flame before me,
Be Thou a guiding star above me,
Be Thou a smooth path below me,
And be a kindly shepherd behind me,
Today, tonight and forever.

Quote

If fun is good, truth is still better, and love best of all.
William Makepiece Thackeray

Thank you

I thank You just for life.
The chance to live, to be alive!
So great Your gift,
if You do nothing give besides,
it is enough.

To breathe Your air,
to walk the woodland sod,
to feel the play of mighty winds,
to look You in the face,
and call You God.

An Irish Blessing

May the blessed sunlight shine upon you and warm your heart until it glows like a great fire, so that a stranger may come and warm himself at it, and also a friend.

Declaration

The world is my country,
The human race is my race,
The spirit of man is my god,
The future of man is my heaven.

-F.R. Scott

Good News

Everyone has inside himself
a piece of good news.
The good news is that you really don't know....
How great you can be,
How much you can love,
What you can accomplish,
or what your potential is.
How can you top good news like that?

-Anne Frank, From her diary

Canoeing Prayer

Lord, we will be canoeing today;
We shall be very busy;
If, during the course of the day
We forget about you,
Please don't forget about us.

Beaver Prayer

Thank you God, who loves us,
For every happy day,
For trees and grass and flowers and sun,
For friends to share our games and fun,
Thank you God, we love you.
Amen

Wherever we are

God's light surrounds us,
God's love enfolds us,
God's power protects us,
God's presence watches over us;
Wherever we are, God is.

A Camper's Ten Commandments

Thou shalt do they share and more;
Thou shalt keep thy sense of humor;
Thou shalt do they camp duties to the best of thy ability;
Thou shalt not cry over burnt food;
Thou shalt treat other people as you would wish them to treat you;
Thou shalt not pollute or destroy;
Thou shalt not giggle all night;
Thou shalt not forget about personal cleanliness;
Thou shalt spread thy friendship to someone new;
Thou shalt listen to thy leaders, for they are wise in the ways of making camp a happy time for everyone.

Jamaican Camp Grace

Lift up your hearts;
Hearts and minds and voices all give thanks
For this our bread;
Hearts and minds and voices all give thanks
For these our friends;
Hearts and minds and voices all give thanks
For this our camp;
Hearts and minds and voices all give thanks
For this our world;
Hearts and minds and voices all give thanks
We thank the Lord;
Hearts and minds and voices all give thanks

Present Tense

It was spring, but it was summer I wanted,
The warm days, and the great outdoors.

It was summer, but it was fall I wanted,
The colorful leaves, and the cool, dry air.

It was fall, but it was winter I wanted,
The beautiful snow, and the joy of the holiday season.

It was winter, but it was spring I wanted,
The warmth, and the blossoming of nature.

I was a child, but it was adulthood I wanted,
The freedom, and the respect.

I was 20, but it was 30 I wanted,
To be mature, and sophisticated.

I was middle aged, but it was 20 I wanted,
The youth, and the free spirit.

I was retired, but it was middle age I wanted,
The presence of mind, without limitations.

My life was over. but I never got what I wanted.

-Jason Leham (age 14)

Take Time

Take time to work,
 It is the price of success.
 Take time to think,
 It is the source of power.
 Take time to read,
 It is the foundation of knowledge.
 Take time to give to others,
 It will bring you happiness.
 Take time to love,
 It is the sacrament of life.
 Take time to dream,
 It hitches the soul to the stars.
 Take time to laugh,
 It lightens the highway to eternal life.
 Take time to plan,
 And you will have time for all the rest.

- From Jo-Anne Wood

Campers

Campers are very special people:
 They have felt the cool wind of dawn;
 They have known the slow march of the stars along the milky way;
 They have reached out their hands to new friends;
 They have stood tiptoe to the meaning of life, and found it good:
 Their eyes have caught the vision of the shining future,
 Their hearts have encompassed all the bounds of the earth.
 And their minds have listened to God.

A Closing Thought

May the road rise to meet you;
 May the wind be always at your back;
 May the rain fall softly upon your face;
 May the Lord hold you in the hollow of His hand.

Isn't It Funny

When the other fellow takes a long time to do something, he's slow. But when I take a long time to do something, I'm thorough.

When the other fellow doesn't do it, he's too lazy. But when I don't do it, I'm too busy.

When the other fellow goes ahead and does something without being told, he's overstepping his bounds. But when I do something without being told, that's initiative!

When the other fellow states his side of a question strongly, he's bull-headed. But when I state my side of a question strongly, I'm being firm.

When the other fellow overlooks a few of the rules of etiquette, he's rude. But when I skip a few of the rules, I'm being original.

When the other fellow does something that pleases higher-ups, he's polishing the brass. But when I do something that pleases them, that's cooperation.

When the other fellow gets ahead, he sure had the lucky breaks. But when I manage to get ahead - well, man! it was hard work that did it.

Funny, isn't it? Or is it?

Rope Circle Closing

Give each boy a piece of rope about 1m long. Tell the boys to tie their ropes together with square knots. Then, holding the knotted rope they form a friendship circle, lean back, and let the rope support them. Scouter says, "You are now part of a group of close friends, help together by a square knot, the symbol of helping others. Let's say our promise together."

-from Circle Ten Council, BSA, Pow Wow 1979

Give Thanks

Give thanks for sun and sky around,
And all the riches of the ground,
For all our blessings and this food,
For life and friends and all that's good.

Lord's Prayer

(Translated from Chinook)

Our father who stayeth in the above
God in our hearts be Thy name,
God Thou Chief among all people
God Thy will upon earth
As in the above.
Give us every day our food;
If we do evil,
Be not Thou very angry, and if Anyone evil towards us
Not we angry towards them
Send away far from us all evil.

A Scout's Prayer

We have hiked along life's pathway,
Our packs upon our backs,
We have pitched our tents and rested
Here and there along the tracks.
We have used our compass wisely
To guide us on our way
And hope to reach the campsite
Of our Great Chief Scout some day.

We have tried to be trustworthy -
Kept our honor high and clean,
We have been as loyal as any
To our Country and our Queen.
We have done our best at all times -
Kept our Promise - been prepared,
And hope our good deeds please Him
When at last our souls are bared.

We have lightened others' burdens,
With our smiles along the way,
We have kept our hand in God's hand,
Walked beside Him day by day.
And when our span of life runs out,
We'll make this gentle plea -
May we sit around His Campfire
At the Final Jamboree.

Rainbow

Rainbow, rainbow
The heavenly miracle of -
Rainbow, rainbow,
A rainbow colored with love.

Gem conjured out of the shadows,
Miracle wrought in the rain,
We see in each shimmering rainbow
Life's wonderful colors again;
Like poppies ablaze in the cornfield,
With midsummer blue skies above,
Like butterflies' wings and all living things,
The rainbow is colored with love.

Rainbow, rainbow,
That sunshine caught in the rain;
Rainbow, rainbow,
A sunshine caught in the rain.

The Lord made mankind in His image,
To dwell on the earth in His place,
And just as He colored the rainbow,
He colored the folk of each race;
So children are brothers and sisters,
Whatever the language, they prove,
With eyes shining bright and face black or white;
The radiate friendship and love.

Rainbow, rainbow,
You tell us the sun's close by;
Rainbow, rainbow,
A smile in our troubled sky.

We Thank You Lord

... for the lives of Lord and Lady B.P.
for all the fun and adventures we have in Scouting
for the worldwide brotherhood of Scouts
for the beauty of the world and all the marvellous things
 You have made in nature
for keeping us fit and well and happy
for our homes, our parents, and all who look after us

Please help us

... to be good sportsmen, fair and honest in work as in play and in everything we do.
to find ways of serving You by helping other people as best we can
to be worthy of our uniform and loyal to our promise, behaving as true brothers to all mankind to look after Your creation and keep this world as lovely a place as You intended it to be to help all children who are not so lucky as we, especially those who are hungry or lonely, sick or sad
to be loving and caring as we grow older and to do our best to repay your blessings in every way we can.

-Thanks to Hazel Addis, Scouting (U.K.)

Sioux Prayer

Ho! Great Spirit, Grandfather, you have made everything and are in everything. You sustain everything, guide everything, provide everything, and protect everything, because everything belongs to you. I am weak, poor and lowly; nevertheless, help me to care, in appreciation and gratitude to you and for everything.

I love the stars, the sun and the moon, and I thank you for our beautiful mother, the Earth, whose many breasts nourish the fish, the fowls and the animals, too. May I never deceive Mother Earth; may I never deceive my people; may I never deceive myself; and above all, may I never deceive you.

A True Friend

A true friend is one to whom you can tip out all the contents of your heart, chaff and grain together, knowing that the gentlest hands will take and sift it, keep what is worth keeping and, with the breath of kindness, blow the rest away.

-an Arabian definition of a friend

Thanks Be to God

Thanks to God for things we see,
The growing flower, the waving tree,
Our mother's face, the bright blue sky
Where birds and clouds go floating by;
Thanks be to God for seeing.

Thanks to God for things we hear,
For sounds of friends who laugh and cheer,
The merry bells, the songs of birds,
For stories, tunes, and kindly words;
Thanks be to God for hearing.

-from Hazel Tagg

Beaver Prayer

Now, before I run to play,
Don't let me forget to pray
To God who keeps me through the night
And wakes me up with morning light;
Help me, Lord, to love you more
Than I have ever loved before,
In my work and in my play;
Thank you, God, for another day.

- 8th Belleville Beavers

Needs

You need enough happiness to keep you serene;
Enough troubles to make you strong;
Enough suffering to make you human;
Enough hopes to keep you optimistic;
Enough failures to keep you humble;
Enough success to keep you confident;
Enough friends to give you comfort;
Enough enthusiasm to make you dare boldly;
Enough faith to banish depression;
Enough love to keep you young in heart;
Enough time to sing your joy;
And enough peace to keep you happy.

Prayer for Peace

God, make me an instrument of Your Peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy;
That I may seek to console, rather than to be consoled,
To understand rather than to be understood,
To love rather than to be loved:
For it is in giving that we receive,
In self-forgetfulness that we find our true selves,
In forgiving that we are forgiven:
God, make me an instrument of Your Peace.
